Death of H. W. Weeks

Sudden Attack of Appendicitis and Two Operations Prove Too Much for Strong Young Man

Sadness has befallen a large circle of friends by the death of Harrison W. Weeks, which occurred Thursday morning at 11:15 o'clock at the O'Connor Sanitarium. Mr. Weeks was just in the strength of young manhood when, on March 20th, he was suddenly taken ill and sent to the sanitarium, where an operation was performed immediately. His condition was found to be serious but it was hoped that the young man would recover. Later a second operation was necessary and complications set in which soon brought the end.

Harrison W. Weeks was 24 years and 7 months old, and was born in Wisconsin. He had resided in Campbell for the last eight years and was a blacksmith by trade. Since last fall he was of the firm of Crisp & Weeks. He was a good workman, was of a bright and happy disposition, which made him many friends. He was a member of Mr. Weeks was married on March 15th to Miss Florence Moer, of Sunnyvale, and had only just started housekeeping. He leaves besides the young widow, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Weeks of San Jose, and three brothers, S. R., F. E. and M. E. Weeks, all of whom live in Campbell.

The funeral has been arranged for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the mortuary chapel of W. L. Woodrow, San Jose, corner of Second and San Carlos streets. Interment Oak Hill cemetery.

State Sunday School Convention at San Jose, April 5-7

Prof. B. P. Stout will have charge of the music at the State Sunday School Convention, April 5-7 at San Jose. He has attended two other conventions, and all will be glad to see him again this year at San Jose. His solo work helps to deepen the impressions made by the different speakers.

Miss Meme Brockway, Elementary Superintendent of the Southern California Sunday School Association, will be a welcome speaker on the program. Miss Brockway has always given a large number of people help when attending the convention. All teachers of boys and girls under 13 years of age will receive help.

The Bible Study work will be given by Dr. W. W. Guth, President of the University of the Pacific. The four lectures will be from the Old Testament, along the line of the Uniform Sunday School lessons. Dr. Guth has a reputation as a Bible student, and will make these practical lectures for busy people. For any information write C. R. Fisher, General Secretary, San Francisco.

Trustee Election

The annual election of high school trustees will occur next Friday, April 7th. One trustee at-large will be elected for a term of three years. The present trustees are R. K. Thomas, president, Jos. Bohnett, F. K. Bartholomew, M. A. Ross and John F. Duncan, clerk. The term of Mr. Bohnett will expire at this time. The election officers are R. W. Kennedy, inspector; John L. Hagelin and C. J. Ringe, judges.

Mr. Bohnett has made an excellent trustee during his term of one year, and has consented to re-election.

The grammar school will elect one trustee to succeed Mr. Berry. The three trustees are Chas. Berry, E. A. Barker and J. D. Sawyer, clerk.

Mr. Berry has served the town as grammar school trustee continuously for the last 12 years. He has been a splendid man for the place and the community will show its appreciation by a unanimous re-election.

No School Census This Year

The Benedict bill abolishing the school census and basing apportionments upon average daily attendance instead of census children was passed by the Legislature March 25th and will become effective March 31st. Therefore, no school census will be taken this year. This new law will make the average daily attendance a matter of supreme importance to every school, since the next year's funds will be based entirely upon it. It gives a school its money according to the actual children it educates rather than upon those who happen to be dwelling within the district. The census has been costing the state about sixty thousand dollars per year.

The organ is an excellent Estey two manual instrument. Miss Alma Bennett of San Jose was secured to play for the evening. Her skillful handling of the organ proved it to be a most beautifully toned instrument. The choir of thirteen voices sang two anthems, and there were two solos by Mr. Dickson Irvin and Mr. Geo. Barnhardt of San Jose, which were much appreciated. The Rev. John F. Wilson, pastor of the church, spoke briefly on the love of music among the people of the Orient and the Pacific Islands, and related several amusing incidents which he had experienced in his foreign travels.

SUMMARY OF PAST WEEK'S COAST NEWS

Interesting Events Among Our Neighbors in the Far West Reviewed.

What Has Transpired on the Border of the Broad Pacific From Alaska to Mexico.

Long Beach.—James Sargeant and Oliver Riley, 10 and 12 years old, respectively, who ran away from their homes, were found living in a cave. They had subsisted on fish and clams.

Portland, Or.—O. N. C. Ogden, a street car employee, shot and killed his divorced wife, Mrs. Lillian Ogden, and then killed himself. Ogden shot his wife in a cafe and then rushed into the street and shot himself.

Gilroy.—The crossing at the Gilroy Hot Springs road, where several deaths have occurred during the past, was the scene of another accident when the "flyer" struck and instantly killed Marlene Carrey, an employee of the Cullen Brothers' livery stables.

San Rafael.—George Brett, the young man held in connection with the La Franchi murder mystery, was set free. He convinced the authorities of the truth of his claim to being a detective, lately employed by the West Coast Detective Agency of San Francisco.

Richmond.—This city is to be lighted all night beginning April 1st. The council has appropriated for an all-night electric illumination service. This was brought about largely by the fact that there have been some hold-ups recently and the police believe that all night lighting will discourage the footpad.

Sausalito.—W. E. Smith, a car repairer employed by the California Northwestern railroad, was crushed to death here while at work under a car in the yards. He did not observe a flying switch made by a yard engine, and before his companions could pull him out he was mangled beyond recognition.

Weaverville.—W. S. Whitlesey, aged 60, was killed in falling from a trestle in the La Grange mine ditch, 12 miles from Weaverville. His skull was fractured and he lived less than an hour. Whitlesey, who had worked on the ditch for eight years, had planned to quit the following day and rejoin his family in Salem, Mass.

Los Angeles.—Frank Jones, alleged vagrant, tried by a jury on which were three jurors named Jones, is the peculiar record of a case in the local justice court here. After returning a verdict of acquittal, Foreman Jones confided with Jurors Jones and $3 was collected from among the jurors for the discharged prisoner.

Lebanon, Or.—Frank Williams, a school boy 12 years of age, is under the care of a physician, suffering from hundreds of tiny wounds inflicted by fellow-students with pins. The wounds are said to have been made at the instigation of one of the teachers, who held a whip over the boy while the pupils stuck pins into him.

Auburn.—A. Mullin, an American, walked up to a Japanese standing in front of a barber shop here and knocked him down without provocation. He was arrested at once and fined $50, which friends paid for him. He admitted no cause for the assault other than that he was a Japanese. He declared that Japs should be attacked wherever found.

Tacoma.—George Adams, under a ten-year sentence at the Federal prison on McNeil's Island for substituting black sand for gold dust while employed in the United States assay office at Seattle, may be pardoned soon, according to a report in circulation among Alaskans. Application for the pardon has been made to President Taft. His shortage reached about $30,000. His property was confiscated and most of the loss is said to have been made good.

Visalia.—At a special meeting of the Visalia Board of Trade the first steps were taken in the project to secure for a Tulare county man a place on the advisory board which is to be appointed by the Governor to act with the State Highway Commission in the construction of the proposed $18,000,000 State highway. By unanimous vote of the directors resolutions were adopted endorsing C. F. Balaam of Exeter for the place. Balaam was the candidate of the Tulare County Good Roads Association.

POWERFUL SEARCH LIGHTS WILL REACH SEVEN MILES

The War Department Rushing Work on Instruments to Survey Sea.

San Francisco.—To increase the efficiency of the fortifications at this harbor, the War Department is rushing to completion eight new fire command and range finding stations and five powerful searchlights, all of which will be part of the equipment of the big guns at the Presidio.

The work on the fire command and range finding stations is being carried on under the watch of armed guards and no one is allowed near the work except officers who are carrying out the details of the work and those employed on the construction.

The five new searchlights are 60 inches in diameter and will be able to throw a ray of light eight miles. They will have a clean sweep of the bay and will be used for night work in detecting the approach of an enemy. Their rays of light will enable the gunners to direct the fire of the big guns against a hostile fleet in case of war.

The regular companies of coast artillery at all the fortifications about the bay will commence drilling on the guns the first of next month. The work will last well into the summer.

Cow Leads on Trail of Robbers.

Princeton.—A cow grieving over the loss of her calf caused the arrest of T. M. Debolt and F. C. Debolt, butchers, on a charge of stealing and slaying the calf. The cow and calf belonged to Frank Holmes. The calf's hide was found hanging in the Debolt slaughter house. The cow broke from her corral on two different occasions and went to the slaughter house, grieving over the loss of her offspring. This led to the arrest of the two butchers.

One Ticket for Fourteen.

Muskogee, Okla.—Riding on a single railroad ticket, Mrs. Frank Scott of Highland, Kan., and her 13 sons are expected to arrive in Oklahoma soon. Mrs. Scott's children are all under six years of age. The six oldest are triplet sets, the oldest being 5½, the others a year younger. The next two are 3, the next pair 2, while the three babies are 2 months old. All of their names begin with "A."

Miners Joining Insurrectos.

San Antonio.—H. M. Burns, a mining man with interests in northern Mexico, declared that the closing of the mines had thrown many Americans out of work and that more than 150, having no other way of living, were now with the Insurrectos. In addition, Burns said, there were probably 50 American adventurers with the Insurrectos.

Chris Buckley in Suit for Money.

San Jose.—Demanding a share in the $250,000 profits from an electric rectifier, invented by Professor John J. Montgomery of Santa Clara College, Chris A. Buckley, a former political boss of San Francisco, and two associates, W. G. Davis and William J. Blattner, have begun suit, alleging a partnership.

Cast Adrift in Boat.

Chicago.—Students attending North western University placed George Buckshaw in a frail row boat without oars and cast him adrift in Lake Michigan as part of a fraternity initiation. A strong wind carried him out two miles and life savers rescued him when his craft was in danger of capsizing.

Gold Nugget in Oroville.

Oroville.—Residents of the Forbestown section have been thrown into a state of excitement as the result of the finding of a gold nugget in a yard here. The nugget was picked up by Miss Emma Kimball. It was brought to town and its value was estimated at $250 by the Ridout bank.

Made Sure of His Job.

Los Angeles.—Bent on suicide, an unidentified man climbed to the roof of the 12-story building at Sixth and Broadway, drank a bottle of carbolic acid, slashed his throat with a razor and plunged headlong to the sidewalk, 12 stories below.

Incendiary Fire in Sacramento.

Sacramento.—The Capital box factory, one of the largest manufacturing institutions in Sacramento, was destroyed by an early morning fire. The blaze was plainly the work of incendiaries and the loss is over $35,000.

Smothered in Distillate.

Bakersfield.—Carl Berley, 20, of Meadville, Pa., fell into a tank of distillate at the plant of the National Refinery Company on Kern river, and was dead when taken out.

Eight Hour Work Day Measure for Women Now Law

Sacramento.—Governor Johnson has affixed his signature to the Griffin-Caminetti bill, providing for an eight-hour day for women workers. It is now a law and it is believed that within 60 days the business affected will have adjusted itself to the new statute and that the fears regarding its operation will prove to be groundless. The law affects all women workers employed in factories or in the operation of mechanical appliances, but does not affect those engaged in the fruit industries or domestics. The eight-hour bill was the center of one of the most stubbornly contested fights in the Legislature at the present session.

Governor Johnson affixed his signature to the Australian ballot bill, thereby striking from the State's political system the iniquitous method of voting by the party circle. Hereafter each elector will have to designate by stamping on the ballots his choice for each office. There will be no party columns by which the ward-heeler and political sub-boss can direct the ignorant voter.

"Let's halt the bill collector at the cemetery gate." With this sentiment as the concluding sentence of his message, Governor Johnson vetoed two bills by Senator Wolfe (S. B. 646, 647), providing for mechanics' lien on tombstones. The reason for the bill as set forth in discussion was that in stress of grief monuments frequently are ordered which cannot be paid for.

Senator Rush's bill appropriating $3200 for an automobile for the Governor; Senator Martinelli's bill regulating the storage of explosives and placing their transportation under the regulation of the Railroad Commission, and Senator Finn's bill for commitment of inebriates and victims of drug habits in hospitals for the insane until cured, all became laws without the Governor's signature, ten days having expired since they were presented to him.

Six bills introduced by Senator Boynton, which reform the procedure concerning indictments, were signed by Governor Johnson, their Senate numbers being 383 to 388.

The penal code sections under which attorneys have challenged and examined Grand Jurors are repealed and the Court alone is authorized to challenge the Grand Jury panel or individual Grand Jurors, the Court's acceptance being conclusive.

A transcript of the testimony, which now is given the defendant on arraignment, will hereafter be delivered five days before the case is set for trial, or five days after the grand jury is discharged. Indictments and informations may now be amended in the Court's discretion so as to correct minor mistakes without changing the offense charged.

The Governor signed Senator Wolfe's bill which provides that the right of eminent domain may be exercised in behalf of expositions or fairs in aid of which public moneys or other things of value has been authorized by the constitution. This applies to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The Governor signed Senator Campbell's bill to have Spanish taught in at least one public school in San Francisco.

The New House Plans Probing Many Questions Now in Air

Washington.—Democracy is divided over the question whether to "open up" a series of investigations during the special session about to be convened or to concentrate their energies upon the next regular session.

The House Ways and Means Committee, as it will be constituted, is meeting daily for the discussion of plans to be followed at the special session. The committee holds the newly acquired power formerly wielded by Speaker Cannon, that of appointing all the other committees. Therefore, whatever it may determine will be the working program of the House majority.

In addition to consideration of Canadian reciprocity and revision of certain tariff schedules the following investigations may be taken up:

After drastic revision of the Federal payroll Congress will seek to learn the real reason for the military "maneuvers."

To discover why the steel trust was not prosecuted under the Sherman anti-trust law.

To fix responsibility for the sale of the Friar lands in the Philippines to the sugar trust.

To attempt the unseating of Senator Lorimer.

To investigate the purchase of the Panama canal from the French company in order to learn what the promoters of the deal received.

To determine whether soft berths are being given systematically to men defeated in the recent elections.

To investigate the Interior Department under Secretary Ballinger's tenure of office.

Inquiry into the Postoffice Department and the Department of Justice regarding charges of favoring Diaz agents in prosecuting Mexican revolutionists on American soil.

No More Treating in Tacoma Sociable Drink Cut Out

Tacoma, Wash.—The anti-treating ordinance passed by the municipal commission in December and referred to the voters of the city, was carried by a majority of 2814, with two precincts to hear from, the vote being 8703 for the ordinance and 5889 against.

A heavy vote was cast for a special election, about 66 per cent of the total registration of 21,587 voters cast in ballots. Between 6000 and 7000 women registered and a majority of them voted. The anti-treating ordinance is as follows:

Section 1.—Every licensed saloon in the city of Tacoma shall be conducted on the plan of "no treating," and every owner of any such saloon shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place within the bar of such saloon a white placard on which shall be printed in black letters not less than three (3)

inches high, the words, "No Treating Saloon."

Section 2.—It shall be unlawful for any owner of any licensed saloon in the city of Tacoma, or any agent, servant or employee of such owner, to sell any intoxicating liquor to any person to be drunk on the premises by any other person, or to deliver to any person other than the one buying the same, any intoxicating liquor to be drunk on the premises.

Section 3.—Every owner or any agent, servant or employee of such owner of a licensed saloon in the city of Tacoma who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding $100.

The recall election of the Mayor and four commissioners will be held in April.

A Special Delivery Fee For Sunday Mail Service

Washington.—Sunday work in post-offices throughout the country is to be discontinued so far as consistent with rapid transmission of the mail. It is not proposed to close important post-offices entirely. Certain work to prevent congestion and delay must be done. Mails will be received and dispatched as heretofore, and arrangements will be made for a limited delivery through the general delivery windows. Special delivery letters will be delivered and patrons of any office will be afforded the privilege of having their mail delivered on Sundays by depositing the required fee for special delivery service.

Postmaster-General Hitchcock issued instructions designed to carry into effect these ideas and to afford employees of the Postal Service one day's rest in seven.

Noted Lawyer Proved in Unusual Way
That His Client Had No Money
—Had Been Robbed.

A noted lawyer had a case in which among other things, he wished to prove that his client had no money, and to that end he cross-questioned one of the opponent's witnesses as follows:

"You asked my client for money, did you not?"

"Well—yes, sir."

"Answer promptly, sir! Let us have no hesitation. You asked him for money. Now, what was his answer?"

"I don't know as I can tell."

"But surely you remember?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then out with it! What was his answer?"

"I'd rather not tell."

"Ho, ho! You are on that tack, are you? You won't tell?"

"I would rather not, sir."

"But you must; and if you do not answer my question promptly and truthfully I shall call upon the court to commit you for contempt."

"Well, sir, if I must tell tales out of school, here you have it. I asked him yesterday if he could lend me half a crown, and he told me he couldn't."

"And you believed him, did you not?"

"Yes, sir, for he said you had robbed him of every penny of his ready money, and if he didn't get out of your hands pretty soon his wife and little ones would soon come to—"

"That will do sir. You can stand down."

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SADIE MULLEN, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

The Mistake of the Boy. Chelsea claims to have a woman who is entitled to a place in the Hall of Fame. She lives on Gardner street, and Saturday night ordered a bottle of medicine from a drug store. The proprietor sent an errand boy with the parcel, for which the woman paid him 39 cents.

Upon his return to the store the boy discovered that one of the coins which the woman had given him was a $2.50 gold piece. He went back through the pouring rain, rang the bell and tendered the coin, explaining that she had given it to him in place of a penny.

"Why, I had no gold piece," she pined. "Someone must have given it to me for a penny. Isn't that lovely! I owe you a cent, then. Here." And giving the boy a cent she slammed the door in his face.—Boston Herald.

Not Enough. Little Tillie had received from her father a short time ago a toy organ. Since that time she played without ceasing.

The other day a neighbor visited Tillie's mother. Examining the organ with interest, she asked the little girl, "How many stops has your organ?" "Four," replied the mother promptly—"breakfast, luncheon, dinner and bed."

Two Kinds of Love. From all time man has been haunted by two kinds of love. His soul has been drawn toward a calm and heavenly communion of hearts; his body toward the delight of the senses. The man who has not some time felt both has not completely lived.

Gulls Furnish Spectacle.

The great gathering of gulls on the new retaining reservoir in Central park makes a pretty spectacle. On most mornings between 500 and a thousand gulls flock the middle of the reservoir, with others drifting in from all quarters of the sky, many of them apparently from the East river. From the distance two kinds of gulls seem to be present, white ones and black ones. The white birds are really the gray mottled, white breasted adult herring gulls; the blacks are the smoky, clouded young—New York Tribune.

Need for New System.

Even in the kindergartens it would be well, while playing, to endeavor to mold the characters of the dear little ones. A system of education which is a century behind needs to be revolutionized, and whoever devotes himself to the task of bringing about this change and solves it will secure a most beautiful and everlasting monument, the eternal gratitude of all humanity.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

What Fertilizers to Use.

The kind and amount of fertilizers which can be most economically used on a certain crop or on a certain soil, can be determined only by an actual test. No chemical analysis of either the soil or the plant will show this accurately. The kind of fertilizing needed will depend more upon the natural character of the soil, its previous treatment and its present mechanical condition, than upon the actual plant food taken up by the growing crop. The following suggestions as to the amount and composition of the fertilizers needed for different crops are based on the experience of experiment stations, and of successful farmers in different parts of the country. The figures here given represent the averages which have been found most profitable on ordinary soils in fair condition.

BLACKBERRY.

The wild blackberry grows in all parts of the country, but the cultivated berries are so much larger and finer than the crop is a profitable one for market wherever the expense of shipping is not too great.

Soil. The blackberry needs a good sandy loam, neither wet nor dry. On a wet soil (containing too much nitrogen) the plants make a rank growth but bear little fruit; on a dry soil, the fruit is small and of poor flavor.

Cultivation. The plants should be set four feet apart, in rows six feet apart, and cultivated sufficiently to keep down weeds and prevent sprouts from filling the spaces between rows. The cultivating, as well as the gathering of the fruit, will be much easier if stakes four feet long are driven into the ground ten feet apart, and a foot from the side of each row, and a wire stapled to the tops so that the bushes will be confined within a space about two feet wide.

Fertilizing. The plant food requirements of blackberries, indicated by the chemical composition of the crop, are one part of phosphoric acid and two of nitrogen and three of potash. The following fertilizer is used by extensive growers, applied at the rate of from 500 to 1,000 pounds per acre:

Nitrogen,3%
Actual potash,8%
Available phosphoric acid, 5%

The general practice is to apply the fertilizer broadcast, or, in the rows where the young plants are to be set.

Suggestions. The trailing varieties, known as dewberries, though not so highly flavored or so good for preserving, ripen earlier than the bush varieties and always bring good prices. They will grow on thinner, dryer soil than the others, are less subject to rust, and are the best small fruit we have maturing just after strawberries are gone. The bush varieties of blackberries are more hardy, make a heavier yield on good soil, have smaller seeds, and in the north are more popular than the dewberries. Unfortunately they are liable to a red rust which is often very destructive and for which no remedy is known. The only effective treatment is to watch closely, and, at its appearance, dig up, cut out and burn every diseased plant. Some hybrids, between the trailing and the bush varieties, have been found very valuable for the middle and southern states, but they are not sufficiently hardy for the extreme north.

Prayer Unanswered.

It had been raining all day and little Mark, shut up in the house, was anxious to get out and play. His mother, in another room, thought that she heard him talking, and presently inquired to whom.

"I was talking to God, mamma," the child replied. "I asked Him to make it stop raining so I could go outdoors, but—don't think He was very polite about it. He never let on that He heard me at all!"

Historic Aprons.

The apron dates far back. The Greeks and Romans were famous for their richly embroidered aprons. In the time of Queen Charlotte Beau Brummell showed his dislike to them by deliberately removing the apron of a Duchess and flinging it behind a sofa at a ball given at the assembly room at Bath. Mary, Queen of Scots, left nearly a hundred aprons of various hues and fashions.

On account of the ravages of the white ant, which destroys the wood-work in buildings at Hong Kong, the use of steel beams is now almost universal in buildings erected there by foreigners, while the Chinese also use them to a considerable extent.

Glance Backward.

Fichte once said: "The day that opens for us another year is best used in beginning that year aright; but one wastes no time, in spite of this, by a backward look or two, not only to balance his own books, as it were, but also to take due note of what memorable men and women have accomplished in the years that were theirs. So shall he at once inform his mind and raise examples to his future effort." And the sentences might well stand text to what has here been written.

WOMAN TELLS STORY OF INTENSE SUFFERING

At the age of about 40 years, I was attacked with hemorrhage of the kidneys or bladder which continued for several years without a check. I finally took advantage of your generous offer and procured a sample bottle of Swamp-Root. Believing it helped me, I purchased a fifty-cent bottle, which convinced me that it was helping me. Three other bottles cured me. In two or three years, over-work brought my ailment back, but one bottle stopped it. I feel as if I owe my life to you for the great blessing Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has been to me. I recommend it to all human beings suffering as I was. You have my permission to publish this letter and if any person doubts it, if they will write me, enclosing stamp, I will give full particulars.

The trout season opens tomorrow. Johnnie, get your—fishpole.

Many a man in his reflective moods wonders why his wife loves him, and so do his neighbors.

We can walk into trouble with our eyes shut, but it is often impossible to back out with both eyes open.

Times can't be very hard around this town. A small boy recently picked up a $5 gold piece while playing ball on the streets.

The Georgia peach crop has been entirely killed by cold. Hardly ten per cent of the crop has been left on the trees. The state shipped about 7000 cars of peaches last year but will not ship 500 cars this year, it is reported.

The Journal says that Santa Clara people feel slighted because Col. Roosevelt did not stop off there. Campbell people have very pleasant recollections of having entertained Mr. Roosevelt here at the time of planting a "Roosevelt Tree" in the year 1903. The Colonel also spent the night here in his private car.

The Thirty-ninth Legislature ended its work last Monday night, after a session of 85 days. In that time 2876 bills were introduced, about 800 passed both Houses; and about 225 were signed by the Governor before adjournment. In addition, 105 Constitutional Amendments were introduced, of which 13 were adopted by both Houses and will be voted upon by the people at a special election to be held October 10, 1911.

The Panama Pacific Fair

By S. A. MOULTON

California, California, to fame will arise.
The clime of the world and scenes for your eyes,
From the gold laden mountains to the fish laden sea,
Over the valleys of vines and blooming trees,
With waving barley and golden wheat fields,
Where the great rivers flow
Winding their way from the eternal snow
Through the canyons of gold that makes the world go,
To California's fair, so rich and so rare,
With mountains so high, up in the sky,
Where the giant trees wave as sentinels below,
Over the valleys where the palm trees grow;
The oranges and lemons, the dates and bananas,
The cherries, the grapes, so luscious you know,
The peaches and pears so juicy and rare.
So we are all going to that wonderful fair,
And see the bird men fly, up in the sky;
With bombs o'er the warships that will not scare,
When peace and gladness is sure to be there,
At the 1915 Fair.

Where the products of earth and navies compare
The arts and science of the genius will be there,
With winged autos to sail you around,
Up above the fair and the Golden Gate there,
So come along with your lady and enjoy life's journey,
Where the fresh balmy air
Is a world without care;

Where all can repose in sweetness so rare,
With dreams of joy and gladness to share;
Awaking amidst the world's most wonderful show,
In San Francisco on that golden shore
Where such throngs were never before

To celebrate in glad some glee
The opening of the Panama Canal
From sea to sea.

And the building up of our Golden Gate city,
So beautiful and free

Where all will be welcomed
And treated on the square,
At San Francisco's Panama Pacific
World's Fairest of Fairs.

GUMPTION ON THE FARM

The toad is the gardener's friend.

When you don't know just what to do, go in and have a good talk with your wife.

Save your metal roofing by giving it a good coat of paint, and do it before it is too late.

The mountain of work before you can all be worked off if you just keep a cheery heart and peg away.

A man with a large family can live better on the farm, where money grows, than in the city, where money goes.

Take time to look into every project that is suddenly sprung on you. Life's greatest successes come out of the most careful consideration.

Can't you fix it so that you will not have to buy any garden stuff this year? Of course you can. What any farmer can do, you can. Get right at it now and make the best garden in town. Surprise yourself and the neighbors.

Here is the formula for treating seed potatoes to prevent scab: Soak the whole seed for two hours in a mixture of one-half pint of formalin (formaldehyde) and fifteen gallons of cold water; dry the seed, cut and plant in ground that has not recently grown potatoes.

If you are planning to grow your own asparagus plants, sow the seed as soon as the ground can be worked. Palmetto is a splendid variety and you will make no mistake in planting it. Be sure to get seed from a reliable grower. Make the drills wide enough apart to permit cultivating with a horse. Thinning the plants to two inches in the drill, and thorough shallow cultivation are necessary to secure strong, well-rooted plants by fall. From April Farm Journal.

State Sunday School Convention at San Jose, April 5-7

The forty-fourth annual Sunday School Convention will be held at San Jose, April 5-7, 1911. The program is rich and full, as usual. Mr. W. C. Pearce, International Adult Bible Class Superintendent, and Mr. Hugh Cork, International Assistant General Secretary, both of Chicago, will represent the International Association. Mr. Pearce will meet with the Adult Bible Class section of the Great International Sunday School Convention at San Francisco, June 20-27, 1911. There are now more than three millions of men in the Sunday Schools of North America. Mr. Cork will also be at San Francisco to look after many details assigned him by the International Association. We are very fortunate to have these two experienced and noted workers from the east to attend our State Convention. For any information write C. R. Fisher, General Secretary, San Francisco.

The Crow That Wears a Fool's Cap.
The following clever way of keeping crows away from a grainfield is used by the farmer of Holland: He makes some small caps of stout paper and smears around the inner side of the mouth of each some birdlime or other sticky stuff. In these he puts some grains of corn and stands them about his fields by pressing their points into soft earth. When the crow finds one of these paper caps he thinks himself in great luck until he attempts to peek at the tempting grain. When, to his astonishment, he finds the cap attached to his head—a regular fool's cap—which will not even allow him to see what course to take if he flies up. However, he succeeds in reaching some coarse grass or bushes and after much bewildered scrambling and dopping about gets his head out of this undesirable cap and ever afterward avoids the field where there are more of them.

Changing Tom Reed's Face.

Thomas B. Reed was once the victim of a printer's error the unusual aptness of which, after the first flush of indignation had subsided, appealed so strongly to his sense of the comic that he never failed to refer to the matter with the keenest gusto whenever he met the man whom he, with the utmost mock solemnity, always held responsible for it. The late Colonel John A. Cockerill's handwriting in the heat of composition was sometimes liable to lose itself in an almost interminable tangle, decipherable only with the greatest difficulty. On one occasion he undertook to say that "any one can see Tom Reed has the face of an honest man," but was horrified when he opened his paper the following morning and found that the types made him say that "any one can see Tom Reed has a face like a harvest moon."

The Feet of Chameleons.

Chameleons, as no doubt readers are aware, all belong to the old world, and particularly to Africa. In their tongue, their feet and their eyes they differ remarkably from other lizards. Their feet, though possessing five toes, are divided into two grasping groups, looking like a hand in mittens, and only by close examination you perceive the presence of the two or the three opposing respectively, but so close together as to appear like one broad one. On the padded soles or palms of these grasping limbs you can feel and see the small may one say—palpi, which enable them to grasp so firmly that it is difficult to detach a chameleon from its foot. These clinging feet, together with their prehensile tail, enable them to sustain themselves on the branches of the strongest gale.
